About Project

In 2018, it was during this period that my love for cyber security awareness training in my Community intensified, and I discovered cyber security knowledge as my new training package for raising awareness.

My ultimate goal is to provide my community people with that which my own experience in cyber security education gave me, the opportunity to explore an intellectual interest and to identify the implication of this pursuit in a broader context. I can see myself becoming a cyber security trainer and serving as a resource person to the community, and I can also see myself delving into policy-making to use safe internet for all. I am a fellow of the Bangladesh School of Internet Governance Forum. Bangladesh Internet Governance Forum (BIGF) is a multi-stakeholder organization aimed to illuminate issues and create ideas on internet usage in Bangladesh in association with the UN Internet Governance Forum (UN IGF).

I envision competing in a Global Internet Governance Forum to exchange insights on the field of cybersecurity knowledge with people from all over the world. While I am open and excited by the possibilities of being a cyber-security expert in the 21st century.

I believe that I have qualities and experiences that will translate to a successful career as a cyber-security technopreneur.
